Pre-registration for the following programs and activities is now underway.

If you're alive, you have a story to tell! On Tuesday, October 5th, at 1:30 p.m., local author, Barbara Worton, will present Telling Your Story. Worton will discuss why you should tell your story, some truths about storytelling, and the "rules of the road" for getting your story out of your head and onto paper. You will leave knowing not only which resources will help you bring your story to life, but also with the inspiration to get started on your literary journey! A Tuesday Talks event, this class is sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Come and share your thoughts about The Holdout by Graham Moore at the Tuesday, October 12th, 1:30 p.m. meeting of the Books 'n' Bites book club. Joanne Tattersall will moderate the discussion. New members are always welcome!

Miss Ro and the Crafty Ladies will paint ceramic pumpkins on Tuesday, October 19th at 1:30 p.m. All supplies will be provided. A limited number of Grab-and-Go kits will be available for homebound crafters.

Join Miss Susan on Tuesday, October 26th, at 1:30 p.m. for a Walk 'n' Talk tour of the Historic Cemetery at Ringwood Manor. Sue Shutte, Ringwood Manor Historian, will discuss the history of the cemetery and the various individuals buried there while sharing historic photographs of the area. The tour will last approximately one to one and a half hours. Dress for the weather and wear sturdy, comfortable shoes as we will be traversing uneven ground throughout the walk. Please meet at the Ringwood Manor Park Office, 1304 Sloatsburg Road, Ringwood a few minutes before the 1:30 p.m. tour begins. Walk 'n' Talk is sponsored by the Friends of the Library in conjunction with the Board of Library Trustees.
